Caerwent Community Council

Chairman's Report February 2019

Following our announcement last month of the resignation of Glyn Cousins as the councillor for Dinham ward the formal process for finding a replacement was started. There was no formal call for an election so the council are able to co-opt anyone interested in taking up the position. As with previous vacancies if more than one candidate expresses an interest in the position we will undertake an interview process to fill the vacant position. If you are interested or you know someone who might be, please contact the clerk as soon as possible to express your interest. Further details of the role will be provided on request.

At our March meeting we received a presentation from MCC representatives from the Community & Partnership Development Team in relation to Loneliness and Social Isolation. The team are currently undertaking a process of mapping what provisions are available county wide and require local councils to help in this by providing details of groups and organisations in their areas where individuals can attend and interact in a variety of interests. It was raised that infrequent or lack of rural transport was seen as a big drawback to lonely or isolated individuals engaging in pre-existing groups or organisations.

The council have agreed to investigate the provision of a further defibrillator for the village which it is anticipated will be located at the Village hall. The community have been extremely fortunate to have been successful in 3 previous bids for this equipment which are located at the Coach & Horses pub, Woodland Tavern and Caerwent Community Centre. Training in the use of the most recently installed unit at the Community Centre is ongoing and an evening event has been arranged for those unable to make daytime training. This will be held on Thursday 11 April 2019 starting at 7pm at the Community Centre.

Previously mentioned in this newsletter was the ongoing activities to try and build up a community litter picking group. These activities are progressing and the group are hopefully looking for a Spring launch. Councillor Harris is co-ordinating the arrangements for this and Council agreed to fund the insurance cover for this activity going forward. If you are interested in getting involved with this group please email Councillor Harris b.harris@caerwentcc.com

We understand that at last work is to start on Caerwent House. A new tarpaulin has been installed and work to stabilise and secure the property is due to start within weeks.

Finally, the Council's planned improvements to the war memorial are due to start next month. The cenotaph will be professionally cleaned, the inscribed names will be repainted and the lantern restored. The stone slabs around the monument will be replaced and the railing retained and painted.

PUPIL COMMITTEES

Pupil voice is very strong in our school with eight pupil committees in total made up of two pupils per class from Year 1 to Year 6! They include School Council, Eco Committee, Healthy Schools, Criw Cymraeg, Digital Leaders, Community Ambassadors, Prefects and the Pupil Leadership Team! In the January meeting of our Governing Body two of these committees, Healthy Schools and Eco, attended and presented their projects from the last year. They all spoke eloquently and confidently and were justifiably very proud of all their achievements ...

YEAR 6 RESIDENTIAL TRIP

Year 6 had the time of their lives last week when they spent three days at Gilwern ... caving, canoeing, climbing, team building and geocaching on the Blorenge in the snow! Their behaviour was exemplary and they made memories that will last forever!

CRIW CYMRAEG MASTERCLASS

Criw Cymraeg have led two masterclasses so far this term teaching support staff useful Welsh phrases in answer to the questions "Sut mae'r tywydd?" and "Beth wyt ti eisianu?"

Bendigedig blant!

CARDIFF MUSEUM

All three Foundation Phase classes enjoyed their visit to Cardiff Museum to look at the Tim Peake exhibition. They saw the actual space craft that he came back down to earth in and the parachute that slowed the spacecraft down! They had their photograph taken in a real space suit and enjoyed several activities including creating their own space crafts from Lego. Although not related to their current "Space" topic, while at the museum they obviously couldn't resist looking at the dinosaur exhibits too!

S.A.R.A LIFEBOAT VISIT

To conclude last term's topic about "People who help us" Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 pupils learned all about the amazing work of the S.A.R.A life boat crew who brought one of their lifeboats to school and all their equipment for the children to use!

Acting Headteacher: Mr. R. Clewer.

February/Chwefror 2019

What a great start we've had to 2019! We've got lots of exciting projects happening in school as well as various visits and visitors and we'll be getting ready for both our school Eisteddfod and World Book day next month too. Year 2 has just started a project called Lead Creative Schools' and the pupils are enjoying working with a professional storyteller, writer and actor called Phillip Michelle. We are looking forward to seeing the children performing their own stories in April! Year 6 are spending each Thursday morning with members of Monmouthshire Youth Service working on a Transition project, studying matters that are important for their wellbeing. They are also running an exciting enterprise project, which will include 'Flash Sale Fridays' to raise funds for a school trip! There are new topics for each class too, including Spanish dancing and art in Year 1.

During our Spring Term, each class will hold their own assembly to share with parents, and other family members, the things that they have been learning throughout the term. Dates and times for each class assembly will be available on the full school newsletter. We look forward to welcoming Mums, Dads, Nannies, Granddads and other special family and friends to share the children's assemblies to hear what they're up to.

Mrs Claire Rosato, Acting Deputy Headteacher

We enjoyed a whole school assembly focussing on rail safety and electrification presented by Network Rail

Our Year 5 and 6 Junior Road Safety Officers have been busy planning their latest campaign 'Belt Up!' with Monmouthshire's Road Safety Officer Geraint Roberts.

The school has been given the opportunity to take part in a project that will run jointly between schools and Gwent Police Operation Encompass is the reporting to schools, prior to the start of the next school day, when a child or young person has experienced, any domestic abuse.

Operation Encompass will ensure that a member of the school staff, known as a Key Adult, is trained to allow them to liaise with the police and to use the information that has been shared, in confidence, while ensuring that the school is able to make provision for possible difficulties experienced by children, or their families, who have been experienced a domestic abuse incident.

We are keen to offer the best support possible to all our pupils and we believe this will be extremely beneficial for all those involved.

Term Dates for 2019

Having worn spectacles since I was 4 I have often thought how good it would be if I had 20/20 vision and not have to rely on my glasses to see clearly. That said I know that there are many people who do not have the amount of sight that many of us enjoy and have to rely on a sighted guide, guide dog or a cane to navigate their way around. 20/20 vision is a term used to express normal visual activity (the clarity or sharpness of vision). Loss of vision and hearing are two of the isolating conditions that Jesus Christ identified and miraculously cured whilst He was on earth.

By the time that you read this we will already be in our 3rd month of 2019 and for those of us in the Anglican Church one step nearer our own 20/20 vision. Let me explain: back in 2000 the Diocese of Monmouth set itself a target of what it might look like and gave itself till 2020 to achieve this goal. The strap line that went with this strategic document was/is “becoming the people that God wants us to be”.

I guess that for all Christians the first step in the journey is to be aware of what God wants of us, as without that we have little hope of achieving the goal. There is of course much advice and guidance in Holy Scripture that helps us on our way, the Christian road atlas if you like in helping us stay on the right path. However, like much in society the written word has been replaced by computer technology and, as those of us who have found ourselves at the wrong destination after following a satnav will testify, new technologies are not always the only or even the best answer.

How then does the Christian church meaningfully engage with the up and coming generations? A challenge not assisted when we are also trying to engage with people at the older end of the age spectrum simultaneously. This task has exercised churches of all denominations for many years, and probably Jesus and His early followers too. Jesus was brought up going to the synagogue and we read Bible pieces that affirm that. He was not like his cousin John the Baptist who lived a life in the desert leading a group of people who didn't see it necessary or desirable to go to the synagogue. Yet by the time Jesus was in His late 20s He too had begun following John, before John's imprisonment and consequent death saw Jesus leading His own group of followers.

The thing about Jesus's ministry is that He met people where they were. He had a nose for suffering and hardship, an understanding of people's quest for more knowledge and understanding, He had that 20/20 vision, the clarity or sharpness of vision, that many in the churches seem to lack in this our time. That, however, does not mean that we should stop trying. For many clergy just being there for people at challenging or exciting times in their lives can offer opportunities to bring people to an understanding of God's vision for human kind, but this is not just a task for Clergy/Ministers/Elders - whichever you see as the leading forces within the churches. If the church – and it doesn't much matter which denomination we are a part of – is to have a vision that enables God's people to be the people he intends us to be, we all need to meet people where they are and help make them equipped for a future that is blessed by God himself.

What is your vision for 2020 and how will you achieve it in the 9 or so months that are ahead of you?

May God Bless you in your deliberations and in achieving them.

CAERWENT POETRY GROUP

Instead of a poem this month, here's a comment about "March" by Thalassa Cruso. Described as a witty, ascerbic Englishwoman she became an authority on plants and was known as "the Julia Child of horticulture" for her common-sense, if often loopy, gardening programmes on American television in the 1960's. Born in London in 1909 she moved to America on her marriage in 1935.

She wrote:

"March is a month of considerable frustration - it is so near spring and yet across a great deal of the country the weather is still so violent and changeable that outdoor activity in our yards seems light years away."

She also said,

"If a plant is unbelievably tatty, dispose of it without the least feeling of guilt,".

I'm sure that will give much comfort to those of us who don't have green fingers!!

'When the Saints go Marching in'

Wales celebrates on the 1st of March, St David's Day, but who was he, and what is a saint anyway?

What do we know about David, our patron saint?

He was born around the year 520 (1500 years ago), reputedly on the Pembrokeshire cliffs during a wild thunderstorm. Story has it that he was the son of the King of Ceredigion and his mum was a nun 'aka' Nonnita (Non). When he was young he became a monk and founded a monastery, on the same site as the current cathedral; and because of the cathedral status, it is currently the smallest city in the UK (population roughly 1600) as opposed to Cardiff (population 358,000). David became known as Dewi Dyfrwr (David the Waterdrinker) due to his modest diet of bread and water. It has been reported that while David was preaching in the village of Llanddewi Brefi, some of his listeners were finding it difficult to hear him, when a white dove landed on David's shoulder. As it did, the ground on which he stood is said to have risen up to form a mighty hill, making it possible for the gathering crowd to finally see and hear him. David's influence extended beyond Wales to the southwest of England, Ireland and Brittany. St David is believed to have died on 1st March 589. David's final words to his followers were reported as "do the little things, the small things you have seen me doing". Following his death Pope Callistus II declared to Roman Catholics that: X2 pilgrimages to the shrine of St David would be equal to X1 pilgrimage to the Vatican in Rome. King Edward 1, following a military campaign took the head and arm of St David from the cathedral shrine, and displayed the remains in London.

Today many mark St David's day by wearing a leek or a daffodil or by displaying the flag of St David, which features a yellow cross on a black background. William Shakespeare name dropped St David in Henry V. When Fluellen's English colleague, Pistol, insults the humble leek on St David's day, Fluellen insists he eat the national emblem (raw) as punishment; something to consider perhaps, as quoted "if you can mock a leek, you can eat a leek" (Act V, Scene 1).

But what is a saint?

The only reliable reference for this is the Word of God 'The Bible'.

Romans 1 v 7: a letter to the Christians in Rome: "to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Psalm 30 v 4: Sing praises to the Lord, O you His saints, and give thanks to His holy name.

2 Corinthians 5 v 17: Therefore, if anyone in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold the new has come.

Saints are...

...people who repent of their sin, and trust in Jesus Christ for salvation now; they are saved by God's grace alone, when they are alive. It is too late after you are dead, whatever shrines are built for you, or whatever is done to your body.

The invitation comes from Jesus Christ himself in Revelation 3 v 20-21.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come into him and eat with him, and he with me. The one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on His throne".

'I hope and pray that you will want to sing with the well known spiritual'

"Oh Lord, I want be in that number when the saints go marching in"

Caerwent Historic Trust Open Day

The Trust will be holding an Open Day at the church of St Stephen and St Tathan, Caerwent on Saturday 4th May from 10.00am – 1.00pm

We are very lucky to have two speakers at the event:

At 11 am Dr Mark Lewis, Senior Curator: Roman Archaeology at the National Roman Legion Museum, Caerleon will give a talk on the layout of the village which will include the identity of some interesting landmarks that you may not be aware of; and

At 12.00 Mr Peter Bonvoison will speak on "House Histories: Court House Llanvair"

The Court House, Llanfair-Discoed

We will be answering enquiries on local history, displaying the layout of the church graveyard plots and assisting with family history. We will also be displaying local maps of the area including tithe maps showing the ownership of local land back to 1841.

Come along and look around the historic artefacts in the church and learn about the history of this great village.

We are urgently searching for local residents who can help us in creating a living archive of their memories of the Caerwent Community. We would like to sit down and hear your stories of living in this community and with your permission record these memories either by voice or video recording. It is an opportunity to secure in history what previous generations haven't been able to do and have personal recollections of local residents preserved for future generations. If you would like to help or know someone who you think would be willing to help please contact us and we will arrange to speak to you about the process. We would like these reminiscences to be made available to all either on our website or at open days we put on in the future.

We shall be projecting historic photographs of the village onto the walls of the church throughout the morning.

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be served on the day. So do come along to the talks and let us have your stories.

Rob Jones

We have held the first two training sessions demonstrating how to use the newly installed heart defibrillator, and also how to perform CPR, (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) on someone who has collapsed and stopped breathing.

The sessions were led by Peter Richards, who is a First Responder for the Welsh Ambulance Service, and were extremely interesting and informative.

We intend to hold an evening session for those who could not attend the day sessions.

The date is as follows:- Thursday April 11th at 7pm.

To book a place, please email ray.bedford@mymailbox.co.uk

The committee would like to thank Ray for the time and effort he has put into obtaining the defibrillator for us, and also for arranging the training sessions. The defibrillator has been installed on the outside of the building, adjacent to the front door.
